

Criteria for Shareholders to propose (1) meeting agenda and (2) qualified candidate to be nominated as a Director in the 2026 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders

Objective

The Platinum Group Public Company Limited (“the Company”) operates the business to comply with Good Corporate Governance. The Company considers the right of all shareholders and treats all shareholders fairly and equitably. Therefore, to ensure the clarity and transparency of the procedures, the Company grants the shareholders the right to propose meeting agenda and to nominate candidates for directorship to be reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors to include the meeting agenda in the 2026 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders (AGM) Invitation Letter. The Company has defined the criteria, method of proposal, deliberation procedures and the qualifications of the Company's shareholders who have the right to propose the agenda and nominate persons to be considered for selection as a director for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders in 2026, with the following details:

The Qualifications of Shareholders

- Being the Company's shareholders, either individual shareholder or group of shareholders.
- Individually holding or holding in aggregate not less than 5% of the total issued and paid-up shares (amount of million 140.0 shares)
- Having held the Company's shares for at least 6 consecutive months and still hold the Company's shares on the day that the Company nominates candidates for directorship

1) Proposal of the Meeting Agenda

Board of Directors will consider an agenda proposed by the Company's shareholders as an agenda except the following:

- Agenda proposal that concerns normal business practices of the Company, unless there is a significant indication of irregularity
- Agenda proposal that is solely beneficial to any specific person or group
- Agenda proposal that is beyond the Company's authority
- Agenda proposal that violates the law, announcement, regulations of government agencies or other governing agencies, the objectives, the Articles of Association, the shareholder's resolution, or the Company's corporate governance practices
- Agenda proposal that contains incomplete or inaccurate information, or have a negative impact on the Company
- Agenda proposal that the Board of Directors considers as inappropriate or unnecessary agenda to include in the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders

Consideration Procedures to propose meeting agenda

- Qualified shareholders defined by the Company may propose any matter or agenda to be considered for AGM agenda by completing “The Agenda Proposal Form for AGM” and other required documents for consideration to Company Secretary Office from October 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025 to the address below:

Company Secretary Office
